

Residency, Immigration Law & Social Rights

June 8th
17:30 Uhr

Siegfried-
Hirschmann-
Park 1
10247 Berlin
Germany

- ➔ Join the Berlin Worker Center and BEMA for a community conversation about your rights at work as an immigrant in Germany.
- ➔ Connect with other workers and immigrants over food & drinks.
- ➔ Learn more about the Berlin Worker Center and BEMA (Berliner Beratungszentrum Migration und Gute Arbeit), and speak with legal counsellors about your worker rights.

Programme:

The programme will be in English.

- 17:30 Doors open
tea, coffee & snacks
- 18:00 Workshop begins
- 19:00 Short break
- 19:30 Questions
- 20:00 Wrap up

STRUGGLING WITH THE JOB CENTER? CONFUSED BY THE GERMAN IMMIGRATION SYSTEM? WANT TO ORGANISE?

- Get informed about living and working in Germany as a migrant.
- Learn about the legal system and how to use it.
- Talk to legal counsellors, ask questions.
- Get connected with help to navigate German bureaucracy.
- Meet other workers struggling with similar issues.
- Build power through organising.

Join the Worker Center Berlin and BEMA (Berliner Beratungszentrum Migration und Gute Arbeit) for some food and a discussion about your rights in Germany as an immigrant and as a worker! Connect with other workers in a community space to empower worker organising in Berlin!

→→→→→→→→ WHEN?

→→→→→→→→ June 8th @ 17.30 Uhr:

→→→→→→→→ Residency & Immigration Law + Social Rights
What are my rights as a migrant and resident of Germany?

→→→→→→→→ WHERE?

→→→→→→→→ Siegfried-Hirschmann-Park 1
→→→→→→→→ 10247 Berlin
→→→→→→→→ Germany

→→→→→→→→ More information on the back! →

STAY TUNED FOR MORE!

The Berlin Worker Center has more community trainings planned:

Late June TBD:

- How to Organise and Build Collective Worker Power with a Works Council
- How can I protect myself while organising with my colleagues?

August TBD:

- How to Use Your Works Council to Improve Your Working Conditions
- How can I work with my colleagues to make beneficial change

